Welcome

Congratulations! You are now an integral component of a continuously growing team. As an employee of Protech Staffing Services, Inc. (the "Company"), we hope that you will find your position with the Company rewarding, challenging and valuable.

Unquestionably, our valued employees represent the cornerstone of our success. Therefore, it is critical to our successful relationship that we take the opportunity to explain what you can expect from us and what we expect from you.

The purpose of the employee handbook is intended to explain the terms and conditions of employment of all full-time, part-time, temporary, seasonal employees and supervisors. This employee handbook summarizes the policies and practices in effect at the time of publication and it supersedes all previously issued handbooks and any policy or benefit statement or memoranda that are inconsistent with the policies as described here. Human Resources will be able to answer any questions you may have.

At-Will Employment Status

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. employees are employed on an At-Will basis. The Company does not offer tenured or guaranteed employment. Either the Company or the employee can terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without cause, with or without advance notice. This employment At-Will relationship exists regardless of any other written statements or policies contained in this employee handbook or any other Company documents or any verbal statement to the contrary. No one except the Company's President/CEO can enter into any kind of employment relationship or agreement that is contrary to the previous statement. To be enforceable, such relationship or agreement must be in writing, signed and notarized by the Company's President/CEO.

Equal Employment Opportunity

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. is an Equal Opportunity Employer and makes employment decisions based on merit. It is the policy of the Company to afford equal employment opportunity to all individuals, regardless of race, creed, color, religion, gender, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, veteran status, disability, medical condition (as defined by California Government Code section 12929), gender identity or sexual orientation. Our employees, as well as applicants, and others with whom we do business with, will not be subjected to sexual, racial, religious, ethnic, or any other form of unlawful harassment and/or discrimination. In addition, the Company adheres to the equal employment opportunity requirements of all States and localities in which it does business. We are completely committed to these principles—not only because of the various laws which address these subjects—but because it is the right thing to do and all such discrimination is UNLAWFUL.

The Company's commitment to equal opportunity is applied through every aspect of the employment relationship, including, but not limited to, recruitment, selection, placement, training, compensation, promotion, transfer, termination, and all other matters of employment. To comply with applicable laws ensuring equal employment opportunities to qualified individuals with a disability, the Company will make reasonable accommodations for the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or an employee unless undue hardship would result.

Any applicant or employee who requires an accommodation in order to perform the essential functions of the job should contact the Human Resources Department with day-to-day personal responsibilities and request such an accommodation. The individual with the disability should specify what accommodation he or she needs to perform the job. The Company then will conduct an investigation to identify the barriers that interfere with the equal opportunity of the applicant or employee to perform his or her job. The Company will identify possible accommodations, if any, that will help eliminate the limitation. If the accommodation is reasonable and will not impose an undue hardship, the Company will make the accommodation.

If you believe you have been subjected to any form of unlawful discrimination, submit a written complaint to your supervisor or the individual with day-to-day personnel responsibilities. Your complaint should be specific and should include the names of the individuals involved and the names of any witnesses. If you need assistance with your complaint, or if you prefer to make a complaint in person, contact the Human Resources Department immediately. The Company will immediately undertake an effective, thorough, and objective investigation and attempt to resolve the situation. If the Company determines that unlawful discrimination has occurred, effective remedial action will be taken commensurate with the severity of the offense. Appropriate action also will be taken to deter any future discrimination. The Company will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint and will not knowingly permit retaliation by management employees or your peers.

Right to Revise

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. reserves the right to revise, modify, delete, or add to any and all policies, procedures, work rules, or benefits stated in this handbook or in any other document, except for the policy of At-Will employment. However, any such changes must be in writing and must be signed by the Company's President/CEO of Protech Staffing Services, Inc.

Any written changes to this handbook will be distributed to all employees so that employees will be aware of the new policies or procedures. No oral statements or representations can in any way alter the provisions of this handbook. This handbook sets forth the entire agreement between you and Protech Staffing Services, Inc. as to the duration of employment and the circumstances under which employment may be terminated. Nothing in this employee handbook or in any other personnel document, including benefit plan descriptions, creates or is intended to create a promise or representation of continued employment for any employee.

Unlawful Harassment

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. is committed to providing a work environment free of unlawful harassment. Company policy prohibits sexual harassment and harassment based on pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions, race, religious creed, color, gender, national origin or ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, marital status, registered domestic partner status, age, sexual orientation, hairstyle or any other basis protected by federal, state or local law or ordinance or regulation. All such harassment is unlawful. The Company's anti-harassment policy applies to all persons involved in the operation of the Company and prohibits unlawful harassment by any employee of the Company, including supervisors and managers, as well as vendors, customers, independent contractors and any other persons. It also prohibits unlawful harassment based on the perception that anyone has any of those characteristics, or is associated with a person who has or is perceived as having any of those characteristics.

Prohibited unlawful harassment includes, but is not limited to, the following behavior:

- Verbal conduct such as epithets, derogatory jokes or comments, slurs or unwanted sexual advances, invitations or comments;
- Visual displays such as derogatory and/or sexually-oriented posters, photography, cartoons, drawings or gestures;
- Physical conduct including assault, unwanted touching, intentionally blocking normal movement or interfering with work because of sex, race or any other protected basis;
- Threats and demands to submit to sexual requests as a condition of continued employment, or to avoid some other loss and offers of employment benefits in return for sexual favors; and
- Retaliation for reporting or threatening to report harassment.

If you believe that you have been unlawfully harassed, please report the incident immediately to Human Resources, your immediate manager or the President/CEO of the Company. The Company will immediately conduct an effective, objective and thorough investigation of the harassment allegations that have been reported. A formal report in writing will be requested, although it is not mandatory, but makes for best documentation of your complaint. Thorough details of the incident(s), names of individuals involved, and names of any witnesses will need to be provided. Supervisors will refer all harassment complaints to the Human Resources Department or the President/CEO of the Company.

If the Company determines that unlawful harassment has occurred, swift and effective remedial action will be taken in accordance with the circumstances involved. Any employee determined by the Company to be responsible for unlawful harassment will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to, and including termination. A Company representative will advise all parties concerned of the results of the investigation. The Company will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint and will not tolerate or permit retaliation by management, employees or co-workers.

The Company encourages all employees to report any incidents of harassment forbidden by this policy immediately so that complaints can be quickly and fairly resolved. You also should be aware that the Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing investigate and prosecute complaints of prohibited harassment in employment. If you think you have been harassed or that you have been retaliated against for resisting or complaining, you may file a complaint with the appropriate agency. The nearest office is listed on-line.

Health Information Portability and Accountability (HIPPA)

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. recognizes that it collects and maintains confidential information relating to its employees, and is dedicated to ensuring the privacy and proper handling of this information in accordance with State and Federal regulations.

Employees should be aware that under the updated CA AB1298 there are two new additional categories of information to the definition of "personal information," "medical information" and "health insurance information" both of which now must be disclosed under this law.

The definition of "personal information" for this California requirement is an individual's first name or first initial and last name, in combination with any one or more of the following:

- Social Security Number
- Driver's License number or California Identification Card number
- Account number, credit or debit card number, in combination with any required security code, access code, or password that would permit access to an individual's financial amount
- Medical Information
- Health Insurance Information

The relevant California requirement defines medical information to mean any information regarding an individual's medical history, mental or physical condition, or medical treatment or diagnosis by a health care professional; and health insurance information to mean an individual's health insurance policy number or subscriber identification number, any unique identifier used by a health insurer to identify the individual, or any information in an individual's application and claims history, including any appeals record.

Uniform Services Employment and Re-Employment Rights Act (USERRA)

USERRA protects the job rights of individuals who voluntarily or involuntarily leave employment positions to undertake military service. USERRA also prohibits employers from discriminating against past and present members of the uniformed services, and applicants to the uniformed services.

You have the right to be reemployed in your civilian job if you leave that job to perform services in the uniformed service and:

- You ensure that Protech Staffing Services, Inc. receives a written notice in advance of your service;
- You have five (5) years or less of cumulative service in the uniformed services while with Protech Staffing Services, Inc. you return to work or apply for reemployment in a timely manner after conclusion of service; and
- You have not been separated from service with a disqualifying discharge or under other than honorable conditions.

If you are eligible to be reemployed, you must be restored to the job and benefits you would have attained if you had not been absent due to the military service or, in some cases, a comparable job. If you leave your position to perform military service, you have the right to elect to continue your existing employer-based health plan coverage for you and your dependents for up to 24 months while in the military. (If such insurance was provided before the leave was taken)

Even if you don't elect to continue coverage during your military service, you have the right to be reinstated in the existing group health plan when you are reemployed, generally without any waiting periods or exclusions (e.g. pre-existing condition exclusions) except for service-connected illnesses or injuries.

In accordance with this regulation, Protech Staffing Services, Inc. may not retaliate against anyone assisting in the enforcement of USERRA rights, including testifying or making a statement in connection with a proceeding under USERRA, even if that employee has no service connection.

Immigration Law Compliance

Federal law requires employers to verify each employee's eligibility to work in the United States. An I-9 form is required and must be completed by all new hires. If you are not able to provide the appropriate documentation as required within three (3) business days from your date of hire, your employment must terminate. Protech Staffing Services, Inc. wants to ensure full-compliance of all Immigration Laws and prevent fines from the US Government for non-compliance.

Orientation & Job Duties

All new hires will undergo a New Hire Orientation designed to inform you of the Company policies, procedures, its history, and expectations. During this New Hire Orientation, questions are encouraged. Your manager will explain your job responsibilities and the performance standard expected of you. Understand that your job duties may change at any moment during your employment. On certain circumstances, you may be requested to work on special projects, or assist with other work necessary or important to the success of your department or Protech Staffing Services, Inc.

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. reserves the right, at any time, with or without notice, to alter or change assignment responsibilities, reassign or transfer assignments, or assign new assignment responsibilities.

Classification of Employees

In order to determine eligibility for benefits and overtime status, and to ensure compliance with federal and state regulations, Protech Staffing Services, Inc. will classify its employees as follows:

- Temporary Employees: Are those employed for short-termed assignments that are generally three months or less. However, such assignments may be extended for an unknown period of time.
- Seasonal Employees: Are those employed for short-termed assignments such as a daily hire, seasonal project hire or an annual season hire only.
- Part-Time Temporary Employees: Are scheduled for and do work less than 30 hours per week.
 - Temporary Employees, Seasonal Employees and Part-Time Employees are not eligible for employee benefits except those mandated by applicable law and those described in this handbook.
- Full-Time Temporary Employees: Are scheduled for and do work 30 hours or more a week.
 - Following the completion of the introductory period, full-time temporary employees are eligible for most employee benefits described in this handbook and those mandated by applicable law.

Non-Exempt Employees: Are subject to the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Exempt Employees: Are not required to be paid overtime. Usually, administrative, artists, computer professionals, executives, and salespeople are exempt.

The Company reserves the right to review employee classifications at any time that assignments and duties are changed.

Open Door Policy

- Protech Staffing Services, Inc. has adopted an Open Door Policy for all employees. This means, literally, that every Manager's door is open to every employee. The purpose of our open door policy is to encourage open communication, feedback, and discussion about any matter of importance to an employee. Our open door policy means that employees are free to talk with any Manager at any time
- Responsibilities under an Open Door Policy:
If any area of your work is causing you concern, you have the responsibility to address your concern with a Manager. Whether you have a problem, a complaint, a suggestion, or an observation, your Managers want to hear from you. By listening to you, the company is able to improve, to address complaints, and to foster employee understanding of the rationale for practices, processes, and decisions.
- Before You Pursue the Open Door Policy:
Most problems can and should be solved in discussion with your immediate Manager; this is encouraged as your first effort to solve a problem. But, an open door policy means that you may also discuss your issues and concerns with the Human Resources Department and/or President/CEO. No matter how you approach your problem, complaint, or suggestion, you will find Managers/Company Representatives at all levels of the organization willing to listen and to help bring about a solution or a clarification.

Grievance and Arbitration

The Company encourages its employees to attempt to informally resolve work related complaints or concerns by bringing them to the attention of the Human Resources Department or Management. The Company has also established a formal procedure to provide its employees an opportunity to resolve any work related complaints or concerns.

This policy is designed to encourage employees with work related complaints or concerns to bring such matters to the attention of Human Resources or Management so that a quick, effective, and final resolution can be made. Please note that the decision issued on an outcome of this formal grievance process will be the full, final and exclusive remedy available.

Any dispute or claim which arises out of or which is related to employment with the Company or which relates to any alleged breach of the employment agreement, or which arises out of or which is based upon the employment relationship (including any wage claim, any claim for wrongful termination, or any claim based upon any employment discrimination, or civil rights statute, regulation, or law), including tort claims (except claims which are properly made under workers compensation law), shall be resolved by the use of this grievance procedure with the final step being binding arbitration.

The Process For Filing a Grievance Is:

1. The employee presents a timely grievance (as described above), in writing to Human Resources or Management.
2. Within fifteen (15) working days, Human Resources or Management will investigate the matter and issue a written decision.
3. In the event any party wishes to contest the decision of Human Resources or Management on the grievance, the matter must be submitted to binding arbitration, upon a request submitted by the party in writing to the President/CEO of the Company within fifteen (15) days of the Human Resources or Management decision on the grievance.
4. If the President/CEO of the Company does not receive a written request for arbitration within this time period, the party will have waived any right to raise any claims, in any forum, arising out of his/her employment relationship with the Company.
5. After the party notifies the Company of his/her desire for arbitration, the Company shall promptly obtain from the American Arbitration Association, or another mutually agreeable neutral service, a list of five (5) impartial arbitrators from which the party and the Company shall select a single neutral arbitrator by alternatively striking names from the list. The grieving party shall, at his/her option, be the first party to strike from the list.
6. The arbitrator shall be informed of the terms of this arbitration agreement and the submission to the arbitrator shall be limited by the terms of this agreement. The arbitrator's award shall be final and binding upon the party and the Company.
7. The cost of arbitration shall be borne equally by the party and the Company except that the party and the company shall bear their own costs of representation during the arbitration.
8. A grievance not advanced to the next sequential step within the time frames imposed by this procedure will be deemed to have been resolved based on the last timely response.
9. Any appeal that is not responded to within the time frames imposed by this policy will be eligible to be submitted directly to the next level of the grievance procedure. Any time limit imposed by these procedures may be extended by mutual agreement of the concerned parties. Please note: The decision issued as an outcome of this formal grievance and arbitration procedure will be on the full, final, and exclusive remedy available.

Coordination of PDL with Family/Medical Leave (50 or More Employees)

If you take pregnancy disability leave and are eligible under the federal or state family and medical leave laws, Protech Staffing Services, Inc. will maintain group health insurance coverage for up to a maximum of 12 workweeks (if such insurance was provided before the leave was taken) on the same terms as if you had continued to work. Leave taken under the pregnancy disability policy runs concurrently with family and medical leave under federal law, but not family and medical leave under California Law. If you are ineligible under the federal and state family and medical leave laws, while on pregnancy disability you will receive continued paid coverage on the same basis as other medical leave that the Company may provide and for which you are eligible. In some instances, the Company may recover premiums it paid to maintain health coverage for you if you fail to return to work following pregnancy disability leave. If you are on pregnancy disability leave and are not eligible for continued paid coverage, or if paid coverage ceases after 12 workweeks, you may continue your group health insurance coverage through Protech Staffing Services, Inc., in conjunction with federal COBRA guidelines by making monthly payments to Protech Staffing Services, Inc. for the amount of the relevant premium. (If such insurance was provided before the leave was taken. Contact the Human Resources Department for further information.

Family/Medical Leave (50 or More Employees)

State and federal family and medical leave laws provide up to 12 work weeks of unpaid family/medical leave within a 12-month period, under the following conditions:

- The employee has more than 12 months of service;
- The employee has worked at least 1,250 hours during the previous 12-month period before the need for leave; and
- The employee is employed at a work site where there are 50 or more employees within a 75-mile radius.

Leave may be taken for one or more of the following reasons:

- The birth of the employee's child, or placement of a child with the employee for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee's spouse, registered domestic partner, child, or parent who has a serious health condition;
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform his or her job;
- For any "qualifying exigency" (to be defined by federal regulation) because the employee is the spouse, son, daughter, or parent of an individual on active military duty (or has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty) in the Armed Forces in support of a contingency operation; or
- An employee who is the spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin of a covered service member shall be entitled to a total of 26 workweeks of leave during a 12-month period to care for the service member.

Calculating the 12-month Period

For purposes of calculating the 12-month period during which 12 weeks of leave may be taken, Protech Staffing Services, Inc. uses a rolling year.

Under most circumstances, leave under federal and state law will run at the same time and the eligible employee will be entitled to a total of 12 weeks of family and medical leave in the designated 12-month period.

Pregnancy, Childbirth or Related Conditions

However, leave because of the employee's disability for pregnancy, childbirth or related medical condition is not counted as time used under California law (the California Family Rights Act). Time off because of pregnancy disability, childbirth or related medical condition does count as family and medical leave under federal law (the Family and Medical Leave Act). Employees who take time off for pregnancy disability and who are eligible for family and medical leave will also be placed on family and medical leave that runs at the same time as their pregnancy disability leave. Once the pregnant employee is no longer disabled, she may apply for leave under the California Family Rights Act, for purposes of baby bonding.

Any leave taken for the birth, adoption, or foster care placement of a child does not have to be taken in one continuous period of time. California Family Rights Act leave taken for the birth or placement of a child will be granted in minimum amounts of two weeks. However, Protech Staffing Services, Inc. will grant a request for a California Family Rights Act leave (for birth/placement of a child) of less than two weeks' duration on any two occasions. Any leave taken must be concluded within one year of the birth or placement of the child with the employee.

Leave for Employee's Own Health Condition

The following procedures shall apply when an employee requests family leave:

Please contact Human Resources as soon as you realize the need for family/medical leave.

If the leave is based on the expected birth, placement for adoption or foster care, or planned medical treatment for a serious health condition of the employee or a family member, the employee must notify the Company at least 30 days before leave is to begin. The employee must consult with his or her Manager regarding scheduling of any planned medical treatment or supervision in order to minimize disruption to the operations of the Company. Any such scheduling is subject to the approval of the health care provider of the employee or the health care provider of the employee's child, parent, or spouse.

If the employee cannot provide 30 days' notice, the Company must be informed as soon as is practical.

If the Family and Medical Leave Act/California Family Rights Act request is made because of the employee's own serious health condition, Protech Staffing Services, Inc. may require, at its expense, a second opinion from a health care provider that the Company chooses. The health care provider designated to give a second opinion will not be one who is employed on a regular basis by the Company.

If the second opinion differs from the first opinion, Protech Staffing Services, Inc. may require, at its expense, the employee to obtain the opinion of a third health care provider designated or approved jointly by the employer and the employee. The opinion of the third health care provider shall be considered final and binding on Protech Staffing Services, Inc. and the employee.

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. requires the employee to provide certification within 15 days of any request for family and medical leave under state and federal law, unless it is not practicable to do so. Protech Staffing Services, Inc. may require recertification from the health care provider if additional leave is required. (For example, if employee needs two weeks of family and medical leave, but following the two weeks needs intermittent leave, a new medical certification will be requested and required.) If the employee does not provide medical certification in a timely manner to substantiate the need for family and medical leave, the Company may delay approval of the leave, or continuation thereof, until certification is received. If certification is never received, the leave may not be considered family and medical leave.

Leave to Care for a Family Member

If the leave is needed to care for a sick child, spouse, or parent, the employee must provide a certification from the health care provider stating:

- Date of commencement of the serious health condition;
- Probable duration of the condition;
- Estimated amount of time for care by the health care provider; and
- Confirmation that the serious health condition warrants the participation of the employee.

When both parents are employed by Protech Staffing Services, Inc., and request simultaneous leave for the birth or placement for adoption or foster care of a child, the Company will not grant more than a total of 12 workweeks family/medical leave for this reason.

If an employee cites his/her own serious health condition as a reason for leave, the employee must provide a certification from the health care provider stating:

- Date of commencement of the serious health condition;
- Probable duration of the condition; and
- Inability of the employee to work at all or perform any one or more of the essential functions of his/her position because of the serious health condition.

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. will require certification by the employee's health care provider that the employee is fit to return to his or her job.

Failure to provide certification by the health care provider of the employee's fitness to return to work will result in denial of reinstatement for the employee until the certificate is obtained.

Leave Related to Military Service

A leave taken due to a "qualifying exigency" related to military service must be supported by a certification of its necessity. A leave taken due to the need to care for a service member shall be supported by a certification by the service member's health care provider.

Reinstatement

Under most circumstances, upon return from family/medical leave, an employee will be reinstated to his or her original job or to an equivalent job with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms and conditions. However, an employee has no greater right to reinstatement than if he or she had been continuously employed rather than on leave. For example, if an employee on family/medical leave would have been laid off had he or she not gone on leave, or if the employee's job is eliminated during the leave and no equivalent or comparable job is available, then the employee would not be entitled to reinstatement. In addition, an employee's use of family/medical leave will not result in the loss of any employment benefit that the employee earned before using family/medical leave.

Reinstatement after family/medical leave may be denied to certain salaried "key" employees under the following conditions:

- An employee requesting reinstatement was among the highest-paid 10 percent of salaried employees employed within 75 miles of the work site at which the employee worked at the time of the leave request;
- The refusal to reinstate is necessary because reinstatement would cause substantial and grievous economic injury to the Company's operations;
- The employee is notified of the Company's intent to refuse reinstatement at the time the Company determines the refusal is necessary; and
- If leave has already begun, the Company gives the employee a reasonable opportunity to return to work following the notice described previously.

For additional information about eligibility for family/medical leave, contact the Human Resources Department.

Pregnancy Disability Leave (5 or More Employees)

Pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions will be treated like any other disability, and an employee on leave will be eligible for temporary disability benefits in the same amount and degree as any other employee on leave.

Any female employee planning to take pregnancy disability leave should advise the Human Resources Department as early as possible. The individual should make an appointment with Human Resources to discuss the following conditions:

- Employees who need to take pregnancy disability must inform Protech Staffing Services, Inc. when a leave is expected to begin and how long it will likely last. If the need for a leave or transfer is foreseeable, employees must provide notification at least 30 days before the pregnancy disability leave or transfer is to begin. Employees must consult with Human Resources regarding the scheduling of any planned medical treatment or supervision in order to minimize disruption to the operations of the Company. Any such scheduling is subject to the approval of the employee's health care provider;

- If 30 days' advance notice is not possible, notice must be given as soon as practical;
- Upon the request of an employee and recommendation of the employee's physician, the employee's work assignment may be changed if necessary to protect the health and safety of the employee and her child;
- Requests for transfers of assignment duties will be reasonably accommodated if the assignment and security rights of others are not breached;
- Temporary transfers due to health considerations will be granted when possible. However, the transferred employee will receive the pay that accompanies the job, as is the case with any other temporary transfer due to temporary health reasons;
- Pregnancy leave usually begins when ordered by the employee's physician. The employee must provide Protech Staffing Services, Inc. with a certification from a health care provider. The certification indicating disability should contain:
 - The date on which the employee became disabled due to pregnancy;
 - The probable duration of the period or periods of disability; and
 - A statement that, due to the disability, the employee is unable to perform one or more of the essential functions of her position without undue risk to herself, the successful completion of her pregnancy, or to other persons.
 - Leave returns will be allowed only when the employee's physician sends a release;

Duration of the leave will be determined by the advice of the employee's physician, but employees disabled by pregnancy may take up to four months. Part-time and seasonal employees are entitled to leave on a pro rata basis. The four months of leave includes any period of time for actual disability caused by the employee's pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical condition. This includes leave for severe morning sickness and for prenatal care.

Leave does not need to be taken in one continuous period of time and may be taken intermittently, as needed.

Under most circumstances, upon submission of a medical certification that an employee is able to return to work from a pregnancy disability leave, an employee will be reinstated to her same position held at the time the leave began or to an equivalent position, if available. An employee returning from a pregnancy disability leave has no greater right to reinstatement than if the employee had been continuously employed.

Accommodations for Lactation

In accordance with federal and state laws, Protech Staffing Services, Inc. will provide a reasonable amount of break time to female employees who desire to express milk for use in feeding their infant children while they are away. If possible, the break time should run concurrently with any break time already provided. There will be a lactation room provided with amenities in accordance with federal and state laws. If you should feel that you are not being provided lactation accommodation in accordance with legal standards, then you may file a complaint with the State Labor Commissioner.

Temporary Transfers

Employees who request a temporary transfer for medical and/or family medical leave reasons will be considered for that transfer if a position exists at the time the transfer is requested and the employee is qualified to perform the job. The employee will be paid in accordance with the responsibilities and duties of the temporary job.

Bereavement

- Funeral Leave for an Immediate Family Member:
When a death occurs in an employee's immediate family, all employees may take up to three (3) days off without pay to attend the funeral or make funeral arrangements. The Company may require verification of the need for the leave.
- Immediate Family Defined for Bereavement Leave:
Immediate family members are defined as an employee's spouse, parents, stepparents, siblings, children, stepchildren, grandparent, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, or grandchild.
- Non-family Member Funeral Leave:
All employees may take up to one (1) day off without pay to attend the funeral of a close, non-family member. This time off will be considered by the employee's Manager on a case-by-case basis. The Company may require verification of the need for the leave.
- Additional Time Off:
The Company understands the deep impact that death can have on an individual or a family, therefore additional non-paid time off may be granted. The employee may make arrangements with the Human Resources Department for an additional four (4) unpaid days off in the instance of the death of an immediate family member. Additional unpaid time off may be granted depending on the circumstances such as distance and the individual's responsibility for funeral arrangements.

Jury Duty or Witness Duty

If you are called to serve jury duty, Protech Staffing Services, Inc. encourages you to fulfill your right and duty as a citizen. Unpaid time off will be granted for the duration of your jury duty. Please provide your jury duty summons to your supervisor as soon as possible so that proper arrangements can be made to cover in your absence.

Voting

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. policy is to encourage employees to participate in the political process. It is your right and duty as a citizen. Therefore, adequate time away is permitted and will be arranged for you to properly exercise this right.

Workers' Compensation

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. in accordance with state law, provides insurance coverage for employees in case of work-related injury. The workers' compensation benefits provided to injured employees may include:

- Medical care;
- Cash benefits, tax free, to replace lost wages; and
- Assistance to help qualified injured employees return to suitable employment.

To ensure that you receive any workers' compensation benefits to which you may be entitled, you will need to:

- Immediately report any and all work-related injuries or incidents to your Manager;
- Seek medical treatment and follow-up care if required;
- Complete a written Employee's Claim for Workers Compensation Benefits (DWC Form 1) and return it to the WC Administrator; and
- Provide the Company with a certification from your health care provider regarding the need for workers' compensation disability leave, as well as your eventual ability to return to work from the leave.

Upon submission of a medical certification that an employee is able to return to work after a workers' compensation leave, the employee under most circumstances will be reinstated to his or her same position held at the time the leave began, or to an equivalent position, if available. An employee returning from a workers' compensation leave has no greater right to reinstatement than if the employee had been continuously employed rather than on leave. For example, if the employee on workers' compensation leave would have been laid off had he or she not gone on leave, or if the employee's position has been eliminated or filled in order to avoid undermining the Company's ability to operate safely and efficiently during the leave, and no equivalent or comparable positions are available, then the employee would not be entitled to reinstatement.

An employee's return depends on his or her qualifications for any existing openings. If, after returning from a workers' compensation disability leave, an employee is unable to perform the essential functions of his or her job because of a physical or mental disability, the Company's obligations to the employee may include reasonable accommodation, as governed by the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Drug and Alcohol Abuse – Zero Tolerance Policy

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. is concerned about the use of alcohol, illegal drugs, or controlled substances as it affects the workplace. Use of these substances, whether on or off the job can detract from an employee's work performance, efficiency, safety, and health, and therefore seriously impair the employee's value to the Company. In addition, the use or possession of these substances on the job constitutes a potential danger to the welfare and safety of other employees and exposes the Company to the risks of property loss or damage, or injury to other persons.

Furthermore, the use of prescription drugs and/or over-the-counter drugs also may affect an employee's job performance and may seriously impair the employee's value to the Company.

The following rules and standards of conduct apply to all employees either on Company property or during the workday (including meals and rest periods). Behavior that violates Company policy and will result in termination includes:

- Possession or use of an illegal or controlled substance, or being under the influence of an illegal or controlled substance while on the job;
- Driving a Company vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or an illegal or controlled substance; and
- Distribution, sale, or purchase of an illegal or controlled substance while on the job.

In order to enforce this policy, Protech Staffing Services, Inc. reserves the right to conduct searches of Company property or employees and/or their personal property, and to implement other measures necessary to deter and detect abuse of this policy. An employee's conviction on a charge of illegal sale or possession of any controlled substance while off Company property will not be tolerated because such conduct, even though off duty, reflects adversely on Protech Staffing Services, Inc. In addition, the Company must keep people who sell or possess controlled substances off Company premises in order to keep the controlled substances themselves off the premises. Any employee who is using prescription or over-the-counter drugs that may impair the employee's ability to safely perform the job, or affect the safety or well-being of others, must notify a supervisor of such use immediately before starting or resuming work. Protech Staffing Services, Inc. will encourage and reasonably accommodate employees with alcohol or drug dependencies to seek treatment and/or rehabilitation.

Employees desiring such assistance should request a treatment or rehabilitation leave. The Company is not obligated, however, to continue to employ any person whose performance of essential job duties is impaired because of drug or alcohol use, nor is the Company obligated to re-employ any person who has participated in treatment and/or rehabilitation if that person's job performance remains impaired as a result of dependency. Additionally, employees who are given the opportunity to seek treatment and/or rehabilitation, but fail to successfully overcome their dependency or problem, will not automatically be given a second opportunity to seek treatment and/or rehabilitation. This policy on treatment and rehabilitation is not intended to affect the Company's treatment of employees who violate the regulations described previously.

Rather, rehabilitation is an option for an employee who acknowledges a chemical dependency and voluntarily seeks treatment to end that dependency.

Pre-Employment Screening

In accordance with State and Federal regulations and in order to create a safe and secure workplace and to ensure that its employees are qualified to perform the jobs for which the company hires them, Protech Staffing Services, Inc. may conduct pre-employment screening for all employees, which may include background investigation and regular drug testing.

Employees are expected to report to work as scheduled, on time, and prepared to start work. Employees also are expected to remain at work for their entire work schedule, except for meal periods or when required to leave on authorized Company business. Late arrival, early departure, or other unanticipated and unapproved absences from scheduled hours are disruptive and must be avoided.

If you are unable to report for work on any particular day, you must under all but the most extenuating circumstances call the office in which you work with at least two hours (2) before the time you are scheduled to begin working for that day. In the event that you had to leave a message on the answering machine, it is recommended that you contact a Protech Staffing representative before the end of the day to confirm that your message was received. Otherwise, you might be considered a no call/no show.

After one week (1), if you fail to report for work without any notification to your Manager and your absence continues for a period of (2) two days, Protech Staffing Services, Inc. will consider that you have abandoned your employment.

Paid Sick Leave absences/punctuality will not count against your attendance record.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES

Your employer must send a copy of your Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate (Form W-4 [federal] or DE 4 [state]) to the Franchise Tax Board (FTB) if the form meets either of the following two conditions:

- You claim more than 10 withholding allowances.
- You claim to be exempt from state or federal income tax withholding and your employer expects your usual weekly wages to exceed $200.

Your employer will continue to treat the Form W-4 and/or DE 4 as valid until notified, in writing, by the FTB of the proper marital status and number of allowances to use for California Personal Income Tax (PIT) withholding purposes.

If you disagree with the FTB determination, you may request a review of the determination by writing to:

W-4 Unit
Franchise Tax Board MS F180
P.O. Box 2952
Sacramento, CA 95812-2952
Fax: 916-843-1094

You, as the employee, will have to provide proof that the FTB determination is incorrect for California PIT withholding purposes. Your employer must continue to withhold as instructed in the original determination until notified by the FTB, in writing, of any changes.

If the FTB finds that the number of withholding allowances you claimed is unreasonable, you may be subject to a $500 penalty as provided by Section 13101 of the California Unemployment Insurance Code.

AVISO A EMPLEADOS

Su empleador debe de enviar una copia del certificado del empleado que autoriza la retención de impuestos conocido comúnmente en inglés como, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate (Formularios W-4 [federal] ó DE 4 [estatal]) al Franchise Tax Board (la oficina de recaudación de impuestos estatales), si el formulario cumple con cualquiera de las dos condiciones siguientes:

- Usted reclama más de 10 exenciones de retención en los cuales se basa la retención de impuestos.
- Usted sostiene estar exento de retención de impuestos federales y estatales y su empleador espera que usted gane su salario normal semanal de más de $200.

Su empleador continuará considerando el Formulario W-4 y/o el formulario DE 4 como válido hasta que sea notificado por el Franchise Tax Board, por escrito, del estado civil apropiado y el número de exenciones que se pueden usar para el propósito de retención del Impuesto de Ingreso Personal (PIT, por sus siglas en inglés) en California.

Si usted no está de acuerdo con la determinación del Franchise Tax Board, usted puede pedir que se revise la determinación escribiendo al:

W-4 Unit
Franchise Tax Board MS F180
P.O. Box 2952
Sacramento, CA 95812-2952
Fax: 916-843-1094

Usted, como empleado, tendrá que proporcionar las pruebas de que la determinación del Franchise Tax Board es incorrecta para el propósito de retención del Impuesto de Ingreso Personal en California. Su empleador continuará la retención como fue indicado en la determinación original hasta que sea notificado por el Franchise Tax Board, por escrito, de cualquier cambio.

Si el Franchise Tax Board decide que el número de exenciones que usted reclama es irrazonable, se le podrá imponer una multa de $500 conforme la Sección 13101 del Código del Seguro de Desempleo de California.

YOUR CALIFORNIA PERSONAL INCOME TAX MAY BE UNDERWITHHELD IF YOU DO NOT FILE THIS DE 4 FORM.

IF YOU RELY ON THE FEDERAL FORM W-4 FOR YOUR CALIFORNIA WITHHOLDING ALLOWANCES, YOUR CALIFORNIA STATE PERSONAL INCOME TAX MAY BE UNDERWITHHELD AND YOU MAY OWE MONEY AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

PURPOSE: This certificate, DE 4, is for California Personal Income Tax (PIT) withholding purposes only. The DE 4 is used to compute the amount of taxes to be withheld from your wages, by your employer, to accurately reflect your state tax withholding obligation.

You should complete this form if either:

- (1) You claim a different marital status, number of regular allowances, or different additional dollar amount to be withheld for California PIT withholding than you claim for federal income tax withholding or,
- (2) You claim additional allowances for estimated deductions.

THIS FORM WILL NOT CHANGE YOUR FEDERAL WITHHOLDING ALLOWANCES.

The federal Form W-4 is applicable for California withholding purposes if you wish to claim the same marital status, number of regular allowances, and/or the same additional dollar amount to be withheld for state and federal purposes. However, federal tax brackets and withholding methods do not reflect state PIT withholding tables. If you rely on the number of withholding allowances you claim on your Form W-4 withholding allowance certificate for your state income tax withholding, you may be significantly underwithheld. This is particularly true if your household income is derived from more than one source.

CHECK YOUR WITHHOLDING: After your Form W-4 and/or DE 4 takes effect, compare the state income tax withheld with your estimated total annual tax. For state withholding, use the worksheets on this form, and for federal withholding use the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Publication 919 or federal withholding calculations.

EXEMPTION FROM WITHHOLDING: If you wish to claim exempt, complete the federal Form W-4. You may claim exempt from withholding California income tax if you did not owe any federal income tax last year and you do not expect to owe any federal income tax this year. The exemption automatically expires on February 15 of the next year. If you continue to qualify for the exempt filing status, a new Form W-4 designating EXEMPT must be submitted before February 15. If you are not having federal income tax withheld this year but expect to have a tax liability next year, the law requires you to give your employer a new Form W-4 by December 1.

EXEMPTION FROM WITHHOLDING (continued): Under the Service Member Civil Relief Act, as amended by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act, you may be exempt from California income tax on your wages if (i) your spouse is a member of the armed forces present in California in compliance with military orders; (ii) you are present in California solely to be with your spouse; and (iii) you maintain your domicile in another state. If you claim exemption under this act, check the box on Line 3. You may be required to provide proof of exemption upon request.

The California Employer's Guide (DE 44) provides the income tax withholding tables. This publication may be found on the Employment Development Department (EDD) website at www.edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Taxes/Forms_and_Publications.htm. To assist you in calculating your tax liability, please visit the Franchise Tax Board website at www.ftb.ca.gov/individuals/index.shtml.

NOTIFICATION: Your employer is required to send a copy of your DE 4 to the FTB if it meets either of the following two conditions:

- You claim more than 10 withholding allowances.
- You claim exemption from state or federal income tax withholding and your employer expects your usual weekly wages to exceed $200 per week.

IF THE IRS INSTRUCTS YOUR EMPLOYER TO WITHHOLD FEDERAL INCOME TAX BASED ON A CERTAIN WITHHOLDING STATUS, YOUR EMPLOYER IS REQUIRED TO USE THE SAME WITHHOLDING STATUS FOR STATE INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING IF YOUR WITHHOLDING ALLOWANCES FOR STATE PURPOSES MEET THE REQUIREMENTS LISTED UNDER "NOTIFICATION." IF YOU FEEL THAT THE FEDERAL DETERMINATION IS NOT CORRECT FOR STATE WITHHOLDING PURPOSES, YOU MAY REQUEST A REVIEW.

To do so, write to:

W-4 Unit
Franchise Tax Board MS F180
P.O. Box 2952
Sacramento, CA 95812-2952
Fax: 916-843-1094

Your letter should contain the basis of your request for review. You will have the burden of showing that the federal determination is incorrect for state withholding purposes. The FTB will limit its review to that issue. The FTB will notify both you and your employer of its findings. Your employer is then required to withhold state income tax as instructed by the FTB. In the event the FTB or the IRS finds there is no reasonable basis for the number of withholding exemptions that you claimed on your Form W-4/DE 4, you may be subject to a penalty.

PENALTY: You may be fined $500 if you file, with no reasonable basis, a DE 4 that results in less tax being withheld than is properly allowable. In addition, criminal penalties apply for willfully supplying false or fraudulent information or failing to supply information requiring an increase in withholding. This is provided for by Section 13101 of the California Unemployment Insurance Code.

INSTRUCTIONS — 1 — ALLOWANCES*

When determining your withholding allowances, you must consider your personal situation:

- Do you claim allowances for dependents or blindness?
- Will you itemize your deductions?
- Do you have more than one income coming into the household?

TWO-EARNER/TWO-JOBS: When earnings are derived from more than one source, underwithholding may occur. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, it is best to check the box "SINGLE or MARRIED (with two or more incomes)." Figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using only one DE 4 form. Claim allowances with one employer. Do not claim the same allowances with more than one employer. Your withholding will usually be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the DE 4 or Form W-4 filed for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed for the others.

MARRIED BUT NOT LIVING WITH YOUR SPOUSE: You may check the "Head of Household" marital status box if you meet all of the following tests:

- (1) Your spouse will not live with you at any time during the year;
- (2) You will furnish over half of the cost of maintaining a home for the entire year for yourself and your child or stepchild who qualifies as your dependent; and
- (3) You will file a separate return for the year.

HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD: To qualify, you must be unmarried or legally separated from your spouse and pay more than 50% of the costs of maintaining a home for the entire year for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. Cost of maintaining the home includes such items as rent, property insurance, property taxes, mortgage interest, repairs, utilities, and cost of food. It does not include the individual's personal expenses or any amount which represents value of services performed by a member of the household of the taxpayer.

If you expect to itemize deductions on your California income tax return, you can claim additional withholding allowances. Use Worksheet B to determine whether your expected estimated deductions may entitle you to claim one or more additional withholding allowances. Use last year's FTB Form 540 as a model to calculate this year's withholding amounts.

Do not include deferred compensation, qualified pension payments, or flexible benefits, etc., that are deducted from your gross pay but are not taxed on this worksheet.

You may reduce the amount of tax withheld from your wages by claiming one additional withholding allowance for each $1,000, or fraction of $1,000, by which you expect your estimated deductions for the year to exceed your allowable standard deduction.

such as a lead, supervisor, manager or agent;

- the employer had no knowledge of the harassment;
- there was a program to prevent harassment; and
- once aware of any harassment, the employer took immediate and appropriate corrective action to stop the harassment.

Filing a Complaint

Employees or job applicants who believe that they have been sexually harassed may file a complaint of discrimination with DFEH within one year of the harassment.

DFEH serves as a neutral fact-finder and attempts to help the parties voluntarily resolve disputes.

If DFEH finds sufficient evidence to establish that discrimination occurred and settlement efforts fail, the Department may file a formal accusation. The accusation will lead to either a public hearing before the Fair Employment and Housing Commission or a lawsuit filed by DFEH on behalf of the complaining party.

If the Commission finds that discrimination has occurred, it can order remedies including:

- Fines or damages for emotional distress from each employer or person found to have violated the law
- Hiring or reinstatement
- Back pay or promotion
- Changes in the policies or practices of the involved employer

Employees can also pursue the matter through a private lawsuit in civil court after a complaint has been filed with DFEH and a Right-to-Sue Notice has been issued.

Sexual Harassment

The Facts About Sexual Harassment

The Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA) defines sexual harassment as harassment based on sex or of a sexual nature; gender harassment; and harassment based on pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions. The definition of sexual harassment includes many forms of offensive behavior, including harassment of a person of the same gender as the harasser. The following is a partial list of types of sexual harassment:

- Unwanted sexual advances
- Offering employment benefits in exchange for sexual favors
- Actual or threatened retaliation
- Leering; making sexual gestures; or displaying sexually suggestive objects, pictures, cartoons, or posters
- Making or using derogatory comments, epithets, slurs, or jokes
- Sexual comments including graphic comments about an individual's body; sexually degrading words used to describe an individual; or suggestive or obscene letters, notes, or invitations
- Physical touching or assault, as well as impeding or blocking movements

The mission of the Department of Fair Employment and Housing is to protect the people of California from unlawful discrimination in employment, housing and public accommodations, and from the perpetration of acts of hate violence.

Employers' Obligations

All employers must take the following actions against harassment:

- Take all reasonable steps to prevent discrimination and harassment from occurring. If harassment does occur, take effective action to stop any further harassment and to correct any effects of the harassment.
- Develop and implement a sexual harassment prevention policy with a procedure for employees to make complaints and for the employer to investigate complaints. Policies should include provisions to:
- Fully inform the complainant of his/her rights and any obligations to secure those rights.
- Fully and effectively investigate. The investigation must be thorough, objective, and complete. Anyone with information regarding the matter should be interviewed. A determination must be made and the results communicated to the complainant, to the alleged harasser and, as appropriate, to all others directly concerned.
- Take prompt and effective corrective action if the harassment allegations are proven. The employer must take appropriate action to stop the harassment and ensure it will not continue. The employer must also communicate to the complainant that action has been taken to stop the harassment from recurring. Finally, appropriate steps must be taken to remedy the complainant's damages, if any.

- Post the Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) employment poster (DFEH - 162) in the workplace (available through the DFEH publications line [916] 478-7201 or Web site).
- Distribute an information sheet on sexual harassment to all employees. An employer may either distribute this pamphlet (DFEH 185) or develop an equivalent document that meets the requirements of Government Code section 12950(b). This pamphlet may be duplicated in any quantity. However, this pamphlet is not to be used in place of a sexual harassment prevention policy, which all employers are required to have.
- All employees should be made aware of the seriousness of violations of the sexual harassment policy and must be cautioned against using peer pressure to discourage harassment victims from complaining.
- Employers who do business in California and employ 50 or more part-time or full-time employees must provide at least two hours of sexual harassment training every two years to each supervisory employee and to all new supervisory employees within six months of their assumption of a supervisory position.

- A program to eliminate sexual harassment from the workplace is not only required by law, but is the most practical way for an employer to avoid or limit liability if harassment should occur despite preventive efforts.

Employer Liability

All employers, regardless of the number of employees, are covered by the harassment section of the FEHA. Employers are generally liable for harassment by their supervisors or agents. Harassers, including both supervisory and non-supervisory personnel, may be held personally liable for harassing an employee or coworker or for aiding and abetting harassment.

Additionally, the law requires employers to take "all reasonable steps to prevent harassment from occurring." If an employer has failed to take such preventive measures, that employer can be held liable for the harassment. A victim may be entitled to damages, even though no employment opportunity has been denied and there is no actual loss of pay or benefits.

In addition, if an employer knows or should have known that a non-employee (e.g. client or customer) has sexually harassed an employee, applicant, or person providing services for the employer and fails to take immediate and appropriate corrective action, the employer may be held liable for the actions of the non-employee.

- An employer might avoid liability if
- the harasser is not in a position of authority,

Disability is an illness or injury, either physical or mental, which prevents customary work.

Disability includes elective surgery, pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions.

Disability Insurance (DI) is a component of the State Disability Insurance (SDI) program, designed to partially replace wages lost due to a non-work-related disability (see "Other Programs," for job-related disabilities).

SDI contributions are paid by California workers covered by the SDI program. Contribution rates may vary from year to year. For current rates, visit the DI website at www.edd.ca.gov/disability, or contact the Employment Development Department (EDD). Disability Insurance customer service at 1-800-480-3287 or EDD employment tax customer service at 1-888-745-3886.

DI Plans

- State Plan. The DI state plan is covered in this brochure.
 - Voluntary Plan (VP). A private plan, approved by the Director of the EDD, which may be substituted for the State Plan. Voluntary Plans may be established if the employer and majority of employees agree to do so. VP information and filing a claim may be done through your employer. If you are covered by a VP, the provisions of this brochure may not apply to you. Obtain information about your coverage and file a VP claim through your employer.
 - Elective Coverage (EC). Employers and self-employed persons, including general partners, may elect coverage. The method of computing benefits for EC participants is not the same as for mandatory rate payers. The cost of participating, which is set annually, can be obtained from your local EDD Employment Tax Customer Service Office.
- EC claims are filed in the same manner as State Plan claims; however, there are some differences in eligibility requirements from those listed in this pamphlet.
- For additional information or to apply for coverage, contact EDD DI customer service at 1-800-480-3287. EDD employment tax customer service at 1-888-745-3886, or visit our website at www.edd.ca.gov/disability.
- #### How to Claim State Plan Benefits
1. Use SDI Online to securely file for benefits or request a paper claim form.
 - By Internet: www.edd.ca.gov/disability.
 - By phone: 1-800-480-3287.
 - By mail: EDD, Disability Insurance, PO Box 989777, West Sacramento, CA 95798-9777.
 - In person by visiting any of the DI offices listed under "DI Office Locations."
 - California state government employees covered by SDI should call 1-866-352-7675.
2. When filing SDI Online, complete all required fields. A receipt number will be generated when your claim is submitted.
 - If using a paper claim form, complete and sign the "Claim Statement of Employee." Print clearly, and verify your answers are complete and correct as errors delay payments.
 3. Have your physician/practitioner complete the "Physician/Practitioner Certification" online or use the paper claim form. If filing online, your physician/practitioner will need your receipt number to complete the "Physician/Practitioner Certification."
 - Usually a claim cannot begin more than seven days before you were examined by or under the care of a physician/practitioner. Certification may be made by a licensed medical or osteopathic physician and surgeon, nurse practitioner, chiropractor, dentist, podiatrist, optometrist, designated psychologist, or an authorized medical officer of a United States government facility. Certification may also be made by a licensed nurse-midwife or licensed midwife for disabilities related to normal pregnancy or childbirth.
 4. File online or submit your paper claim form within 49 days from the first day you were disabled. If your claim is late, you may lose benefits unless your explanation of the delay is accepted as reasonable.

How Benefits Are Paid

- The SDI benefits are paid electronically or by mail. You do not need to appear in person to apply or receive benefits.
- Benefits are paid via the EDD Debit CardSM. The EDD Debit CardSM works like other debit cards, giving you access to funds 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and can be used everywhere Visa[®] debit cards are accepted. When your claim is received, you may be contacted through SDI Online, by phone, or by mail for additional information. Most properly completed claims are processed within 14 days.
- The first seven days of your DI claim are a non-payable waiting period.

Benefits are paid as quickly as possible after all information to determine eligibility is received. If you meet all eligibility requirements, benefits will be authorized. If you are eligible for further benefits, you will be authorized additional benefits electronically or sent a "continued claim" certification form for you to complete for the next benefit period. Usually, these benefit periods are for two-week intervals. However, DI pays benefits based on daily eligibility within a seven-day calendar week. Partial weeks are paid at a daily rate. This rate is one-seventh of your weekly benefit amount. Please allow 10 days from the date you mail or electronically submit a certification for receipt of payment.

How Your Benefit Rate is Determined

Benefit amounts are based on wages paid during a specific 12-month base period, determined by the date your claim begins. Consider when to start your claim since this may affect your weekly benefit rate, your maximum benefit amount, and the period of your benefit eligibility. Only base period wages subject to the SDI contributions can be used in computing your benefits. To qualify, you must have earned at least $300 during your base period. The month your claim begins determines which four consecutive quarters are used.

If your claim begins in:

- January, February, or March, your base period is the 12 months ending last September 30.
(Example: A claim beginning February 14, 2015, uses a base period of October 1, 2013, through September 30, 2014.)

- April, May, or June, your base period is the 12 months ending last December 31.
(Example: A claim beginning June 20, 2015, uses a base period of January 1, 2014, through December 31, 2014.)
- July, August, or September, your base period is the 12 months ending last March 31.
(Example: A claim beginning September 27, 2015, uses a base period of April 1, 2014, through March 31, 2015.)
- October, November, or December, your base period is the 12 months ending last June 30.
(Example: A claim beginning November 2, 2015, uses a base period of July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2015.)

Exceptions: If your claim is determined to be invalid, but you were unemployed and seeking work for 60 days or more in any quarter of your base period, you may be able to substitute wages paid in prior quarters.

You may be entitled to substitute wages paid in prior quarters to either validate your claim or increase your benefit amount, if during your base period you:

- were in the military service;
- received workers' compensation benefits;
- did not work because of a labor dispute.

If your situation fits any of the above, include a letter and supporting documentation with your claim form.

Wage Continuation. If your employer continues to pay you wages while you are disabled, your DI benefits may be affected. DI benefits plus wages cannot exceed your regular weekly wage. DI benefits are not affected by vacation pay you may receive.

Maximum Benefits. The maximum benefit amount is 52 times the weekly rate, but not more than your total base period wages. Exception: For employers and self-employed individuals who elect SDI coverage, the maximum benefit amount is 39 times the weekly rate.

Additionally, benefits are payable only for a limited period to a resident in an alcoholic recovery home or drug-free residential facility that is both licensed and certified by the state in which the facility is located. However, disabilities related to or caused by acute or chronic alcoholism or drug abuse, being medically treated, do not have this limitation.

Pregnancy. As with any medical condition, your disability period begins the first day you are unable to do your regular or customary work. DI benefits are based on the period of time your physician/practitioner certifies you are unable to do your regular or customary work. Do not send in your claim for pregnancy-related DI benefits until the date your physician/practitioner certifies you are disabled.

NOTE: For information on Paid Family Leave (PFL) bonding benefits, see the "Other Programs" section of this brochure.

You May Not Be Eligible for Benefits

- If you are receiving Unemployment Insurance or PFL benefits.
- If you are not working or looking for work at the time you become disabled.
- If you are in custody due to conviction of a crime.
- If your full wages are paid.
- If you are receiving workers' compensation at a weekly rate equal to or greater than the DI rate. If workers' compensation benefits are paid at a lower rate than your DI rate, you may be paid the difference.
- For the amount of time a claim is late (without good cause).
- If you make a false statement or fail to report a material fact. (A 30 percent penalty may be assessed if benefits are overpaid because you willfully withheld a material fact or made a false statement.)
- If you fail to attend an independent medical examination when requested. (Fees for such examinations are paid by the EDD.)

The California Unemployment Insurance Code provides for penalties consisting of fines, imprisonment, and loss of benefit rights for fraud against the SDI program.

Your Rights. You are entitled to:

- Know the reason and basis for any decision that affects your benefits.
- Appeal any decision about your eligibility for benefits. (Appeals must be sent to the DI office in writing.)
- Request an appeal hearing before an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ). You may further appeal the ALJ's decision to the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board and the courts.
- Privacy – all claim information will be kept confidential except for the purposes allowed by law.

- Submit your claim and other forms according to time limits on forms. If your claim is submitted late and you believe you have a good reason for being late, you should include a written explanation of the reason(s) with the form.

Note to employee: A personal chiropractor must be your regular, licensed chiropractor (D.C.) who previously directed your treatment and retains your chiropractic treatment records, including your chiropractic history. A personal acupuncturist must be your regular, licensed acupuncturist (L.Ac.) who previously directed your treatment and who retains your acupuncture treatment records, including your acupuncture history.

If your employer has a workers' compensation Medical Provider Network (MPN), you may only switch to a personal chiropractor or acupuncturist within the MPN. If your employer has a workers' compensation Health Care Organization (HCO), different rules apply, so check with your employer or claims administrator if that is the case.

■ If emergency medical care is needed, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency room.

- Report issues immediately to your supervisor or employer representative at 451-823-0023 (toll-free). Your employer may advise you on when to go for treatment. Your employer also is required to provide you with a claim form with one working day of learning of your injury, so ensure your rights & benefits by reporting every injury, no matter how slight, and request a claim form if it's more than a simple first-aid injury.
- Your employer must notify the state administrator and authorize medical treatment within one working day of learning your injury, and will direct you to a doctor, clinic, or to a hospital if necessary. Any delay in reporting an injury may delay workers' compensation benefits.
- Remember, you have the right to file a claim with the state through the decision at the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board. But there are deadlines for filing the necessary papers so don't delay.
- Call your employer representative or claims administrator if you have questions or problems. It is helpful for an employer to file for or discontinue a claim, just because you file, in order to file, or settle a work-related compensation claim, or because you notify a co-worker that you were injured. If you prove the third determination, you will be entitled to job reinstatement, lost wages and increased benefits, plus costs and expenses up to a maximum set by the state legislature.

Emergency Telephone Number: Call 911 for an ambulance, the fire department, police, or for emergency medical care from a doctor or hospital. For nonemergency medical care, contact your employer, the workers' compensation claims administrator listed below, or go to:

New Health Insurance Marketplace Coverage Options and Your Health Coverage

Form Approved
OMB No. 1210-0149
(expires 1-31-2017)

PART A: General Information

When key parts of the health care law take effect in 2014, there will be a new way to buy health insurance: the Health Insurance Marketplace. To assist you as you evaluate options for you and your family, this notice provides some basic information about the new Marketplace and employment-based health coverage offered by your employer.

What is the Health Insurance Marketplace?

The Marketplace is designed to help you find health insurance that meets your needs and fits your budget. The Marketplace offers "one-stop shopping" to find and compare private health insurance options. You may also be eligible for a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premium right away. Open enrollment for health insurance coverage through the Marketplace begins in October 2013 for coverage starting as early as January 1, 2014.

Can I Save Money on my Health Insurance Premiums in the Marketplace?

You may qualify to save money and lower your monthly premium, but only if your employer does not offer coverage, or offers coverage that doesn't meet certain standards. The savings on your premium that you're eligible for depends on your household income.

Does Employer Health Coverage Affect Eligibility for Premium Savings through the Marketplace?

Yes. If you have an offer of health coverage from your employer that meets certain standards, you will not be eligible for a tax credit through the Marketplace and may wish to enroll in your employer's health plan. However, you may be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium, or a reduction in certain cost-sharing if your employer does not offer coverage to you at all or does not offer coverage that meets certain standards. If the cost of a plan from your employer that would cover you (and not any other members of your family) is more than 9.5% of your household income for the year, or if the coverage your employer provides does not meet the "minimum value" standard set by the Affordable Care Act, you may be eligible for a tax credit.¹

Note: If you purchase a health plan through the Marketplace instead of accepting health coverage offered by your employer, then you may lose the employer contribution (if any) to the employer-offered coverage. Also, this employer contribution—as well as your employee contribution to employer-offered coverage—is often excluded from income for Federal and State income tax purposes. Your payments for coverage through the Marketplace are made on an after-tax basis.

How Can I Get More Information?

For more information about your coverage offered by your employer, please check your summary plan description or contact LRD Insurance Solutions, LLC Office Phone: 949-940-0116 Email: Lynne@LRDInsuranceSolutions.com.

The Marketplace can help you evaluate your coverage options, including your eligibility for coverage through the Marketplace and its cost. Please visit HealthCare.gov for more information, including an online application for health insurance coverage and contact information for a Health Insurance Marketplace in your area.

¹ An employer-sponsored health plan meets the "minimum value standard" if the plan's share of the total allowed benefit costs covered by the plan is no less than 60 percent of such costs.

PART B: Information About Health Coverage Offered by Your Employer

 Even if your employer intends your coverage to be affordable, you may still be eligible for a premium discount through the Marketplace. The Marketplace will use your household income, along with other factors, to determine whether you may be eligible for a premium discount. If, for example, your wages vary from week to week (perhaps you are an hourly employee or you work on a commission basis), if you are newly employed mid-year, or if you have other income losses, you may still qualify for a premium discount.

If you decide to shop for coverage in the Marketplace, HealthCare.gov will guide you through the process. Here's the employer information you'll enter when you visit HealthCare.gov to find out if you can get a tax credit to lower your monthly premiums.

Evacuation Procedures

The following procedures are to be followed immediately in the event of an emergency.

1. Remain calm and do not panic.
2. Know the primary and secondary emergency exit locations located close to your work station or area.
3. Your manager should be immediately alerted in the event of an emergency.
4. Everyone is to leave the building in a safe and orderly manner. Exit the building via the closest exit to you in the area that you are in.
5. Collect those necessary personnel belongings near you but DO NOT attempt to collect belongings from another part of the building. You will be advised when it is safe to return to the building for your remaining belongings.
6. Walk, DO NOT run, push, or shove past others. This causes needless panic, injury and chaos.
7. Use stairways, use stairwell hand rails, moving to the right side of the stairwell. This will allow emergency crews to pass unobstructed.
8. Allow room for other people to enter the stairwell, but do not unnecessarily hold up travel. It is advised that alternate individual entry into the flow of traffic.
9. Handicapped personnel in wheelchairs or using crutches or canes should be assisted or carried.
10. Keep talk to a minimum during the exiting period in order to allow your manager to issue and receive instructions.
11. Comply with your managers instructions completely. Your safety and the safety of others depend on it.
12. DO NOT SMOKE. All cigarettes, cigars, and pipes must be extinguished immediately at the time the evacuation notice is given.
13. NEVER open a door that is hot, feel the door firms with the back portion of your hand.
14. If you or someone is on fire, you should implement the "stop, drop, and roll" technique: STOP! DROP TO THE GROUND AND ROLL AROUND UNTIL THE FLAMES ARE EXTINGUISHED.
15. If there is a fire, and the smoke is thick, you and those around you should drop to the floor and crawl to the nearest exit.
16. If you notice that anyone is missing, notify a manager immediately. DO NOT GO BACK INTO THE BUILDING.
17. Once you have exited the building safely, REMAIN CALM AND DON'T PANIC and return to your work area until you are instructed to do so.

Earthquake Procedures

You must try to remain calm. Look for the safest place that is at hand and move carefully towards it. You may not be able to control your movements while there is shaking, but take a safe spot as soon as possible and protect yourself at all times.

1. If inside a building when an earthquake begins, remain inside the building, do NOT go outside. Many injuries occur when people are struck by falling debris or glass as they try to exit a building.
2. If possible, take cover under a desk or table until the shaking has stopped, otherwise kneel down and cover your head and eyes with your arms.
3. Keep away from all windows.
4. Stay away from tall furniture such as cabinets, bookcases and shelves as they may fall and cause injury.
5. Avoid standing in aisles, near windows, hanging plants, picture frames or near objects that may fall.
6. When the shaking does stop, do not attempt to rush outside.
7. Extinguish all smoking materials, burners, or open flames of any type.
8. DO NOT PANIC and become part of a crowd rushing to get out. Stay put unless otherwise directed by your department manager. STAY CALM. Remember, panic can cause unnecessary injury.
9. If evacuation is necessary, follow the emergency evacuation procedures, and the direction of your manager.

Recreational Activities and Programs

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. or its insurer will not be liable for payment of workers' compensation benefits for any injury that arises out of an employee's voluntary participation in any off-duty recreational, social, or athletic activity that is not part of the employee's work-related duties.

The Company has a zero tolerance for acts of violence and threats of violence. Without exception, acts and threats of violence are not permitted. All such acts and threats, even those made in apparent jest, will be taken seriously, and will lead to discipline up to and including termination.

Possession of non-work related weapons on Company premises and at Company-sponsored events shall constitute a threat of violence.

It is every employee's responsibility to assist in establishing and maintaining a violence-free work environment. Therefore, each employee is expected and encouraged to report any incident which may be threatening to you or your co-workers or any event which you reasonably believe is threatening or violent. You may report an incident to any supervisor or manager.

A threat includes, but is not limited to, any indication of intent to harm a person or damage Company property. Threats may be direct or indirect, and they may be communicated verbally or nonverbally. The following are examples of threats and acts that shall be considered violent – this list is in no way all-inclusive:

Example	Type of Threat
Saying, "Do you want to see your next birthday?"	Indirect
Writing, "Employees who kill their supervisors have the right idea."	Indirect
Saying, "I'm going to punch your lights out."	Direct
Making a hitting motion or obscene gesture	Nonverbal
Displaying weapons	Extreme
Stalking or otherwise forcing undue attention on someone, whether romantic or hostile	Extreme
Taking actions likely to cause bodily harm or property damage	Acts of violence

Proper Workstation Ergonomics

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. is subject to Cal/OSHA ergonomics standards for minimizing workplace repetitive motion injuries. The Company will make necessary adjustments to reduce exposure to ergonomic hazards through modifications to equipment and processes and employee training. The Company encourages safe and proper work procedures and requires all employees to follow safety instructions and guidelines.

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. believes that reduction of ergonomic risk is instrumental in maintaining an environment of personal safety and well-being, and is essential to our business. We intend to provide appropriate resources to create a risk-free environment.

Over time, using a workstation that does not fit your body (i.e. your chair does not support your back, your computer screen is too high or low, your wrists are at an uncomfortable angle while typing, etc.) can result in musculoskeletal problems of your neck, shoulders and back, poor posture, eyestrain and carpal tunnel syndrome.

Along with setting up your workstation properly, it's essential to take breaks and change your position (whether seated or standing) frequently. For instance, look away from your computer screen for 30 seconds every 10 minutes, and get up to stretch every half hour. This will help to take some of the strain away and reduce your risk of being injured from making repetitive movements (such as typing) without a rest.

How to set-up an Ergonomically Correct Workstation:

- Adjust your chair so that your thighs are horizontal with the floor, your feet are flat, and the backrest supports your lower back. If your feet do not rest comfortably on the floor, use a footrest.
- Adjust your keyboard or chair height so that, while you're typing, your elbow is at a 90-degree angle and your wrists are straight.
- Adjust your computer monitor so the top of the screen is at your eye level.
- Use a document holder so your papers can be kept at the same level as your computer monitor.
- Make motions such as typing and stapling with the least amount of force possible.
- Adjust the window blinds or lighting so there is no glare on the computer screen.

Office Safety

An office environment presents a unique set of potential injuries from other lines of work. Working virtually 100 percent indoors, in a seated position and usually talking on a phone, writing or typing on a computer paves the way for some of the top injuries -- back and neck pains, vision strains, pain in the hands and wrists -- to develop.

Other injuries occur from mistakes that could happen anywhere -- objects left out to trip on, furniture that is not well-maintained, faulty electrical cords -- and even from the office, via poor ventilation, lighting and air quality, itself.

With Americans working increasingly long work weeks, and much of them spent inside an office environment, knowing how to avoid these top office injuries is now a necessity.

The following are general safety procedures for office environments to ensure the safety and well-being of all employees.

1. Maintain good body posture while sitting. During prolonged computer use, position your body to reduce strain and fatigue; your wrists should be kept straight, forearms should be parallel with the floor, and your elbows should basically be at a 90 degree angle.
2. Regularly exercise your hands and wrists during short work breaks.
3. Use handles on file cabinets and desk drawers to avoid crushing fingers.
4. Sit down squarely on desk chairs to prevent the chair from sliding out from underneath you. Do not lean back on chairs.
5. Load file cabinet drawers with the heavier drawer being the bottom, and the lightest drawer at the top.
6. Do not stack file cabinets on top of each other and do not stack boxes on top of file cabinets.
7. Do not leave file cabinet drawers or closet doors open.
8. Do not obstruct hallways or doorways.
9. When removing electrical plugs, grasp the plug and not solely the cord.
10. Inspect electrical cords for exposed wiring. Report any and all faulty cords, wiring, or defective outlets immediately to your manager.
11. All spilled oil, grease, water and other liquids are to be wiped up immediately. Always clean up after yourself during breaks and lunches.
12. Proper lifting techniques must be used when manually moving material.
13. Good housekeeping practices must be maintained at all times.
14. Emergency exits are not to be blocked for any reason.
15. Emergency exits must be known by all employees.
16. No extension cords are permitted.
17. Smoking is permitted in designated areas only. No smoking in enclosed areas.
18. Weakened or damaged equipment is to be reported immediately to your manager.
19. All maintenance and repairs are to be performed by authorized and qualified personnel. DO NOT try to take matters into your own hands and fix things.
20. Familiarize yourself and learn where all the Emergency Exits are located and or the evacuation procedure should an emergency arise. Stay calm and don't panic in an event of emergency, follow procedures in order for everyone to safely exit the facility.

Be Careful of Flying, and Stationary, Objects

According to the CDC, office workers are often struck by objects, bump into objects themselves, or get caught in or between objects, and as a result are injured.

This includes bumping into desks, other people, file cabinets, copy machines, etc., and getting hit by objects that fall from cabinet tops, items dropped on feet, doors opening unexpectedly or cabinets that fall over if not properly balanced.

Meanwhile, office workers get their fingers caught in drawers, windows and paper cutters, and their hair and jewelry caught in office machines.

Avoid Getting Hurt by Objects in the Office:

You can avoid these types of injuries, first and foremost, by staying alert, watching where you are walking and putting your fingers, keeping jewelry and hair away from machinery and concentrating on what you're doing. Meanwhile, open doors slowly in case someone is walking by.

The Most Common Accident: Falls

Falling down is not only the most common office accident, it is also responsible for causing the most disabling injuries, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

In fact, office workers are 2 to 2.5 times more likely to suffer a disabling injury from a fall than non-office workers. The most common causes of office falls, according to the CDC, include:

- Tripping over an open desk or file drawer, electrical cords or wires, loose carpeting, or objects in hallways/walkways.
- Bending or reaching for something while seated in an unstable chair.
- Using a chair in place of a ladder.
- Slipping on wet floors.
- Inadequate lighting.

How to Avoid Falls in the Office: The good news is that falls are preventable, and following these tips should help.

- Look before you walk -- make sure the walkway is clear.
- If you're done with a drawer, close it immediately.
- Don't stretch to reach something while seated. Get up instead.
- Report any loose carpeting, electrical cords, etc. to someone who can have them fixed.
- Help keep the office fall-proof. This means cleaning up spills from the floor (even if you didn't spill it), picking up objects that are out of place, etc.
- Use a stepladder, not a chair, if you need to reach something overhead.

Repetitive Strain Injury

Repetitive Strain Injuries are very common in industries which require almost constant use of a computer. They usually occur in the wrist, but also occur in the back, neck, shoulders, arms, and fingers. If you experience discomfort in any areas of your body, contact the Human Resources Department immediately. Every effort will be made to ergonomically improve your workstation and assure you receive appropriate medical treatment.

Hand Tool Safety

- Wear protective equipment necessary for the job you are performing. Discuss any required safety equipment with your supervisor as changes may occur.
- Defective tools must not be used.
- Do not carry sharp hand tools in clothing.
- Check all wiring on electric hand tools for proper insulation and 3 - prong plug grounding.
- Hammers: Use eye protection at all time and keep your free hand & fingers clear of the hammer.
- Screwdrivers: Use the right size and type of screwdriver for the job. Do not use a screwdriver as a chisel.
- Wrenches: When using any wrench, it's better to pull than push. If you have to push, use your open palm. Use the proper wrench for the job.
- Handsaws: Saws that are sharp and rust free are less likely to bind or jump. Ensure the object being cut is secured tightly to a flat surface.

First Aid

- For the safety of every employee and yours, first aid supplies are available in the office area. Your Manager will be able to direct you to the supplies if needed. Report ALL Injuries to your Supervisor/Manager immediately regardless of the severity.

Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) & Attire

Protech Staffing Services, Inc. is dedicated to providing a safe and healthy work place. All employees are expected to do their part to achieve this goal. Employees can do their part by using the proper Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) provided them.

Personal Protective Equipment will be provided, used and maintained in a sanitary and reliable condition wherever it is necessary to prevent injury. Personal Protective Equipment requirements include, but are not necessarily limited to the items below.

PROTECTIVE HEADWEAR

Where there is the exposure of overhead danger from falling objects or from electric shock or burns, protective headwear must be worn. Protective headwear is an approved hard hat that meets the requirements of the American National Standards Institute (ANSI Z889.1-1969).

Protective headwear will be issued to the required employees. Employees are responsible for using their hard hats while working. Also, employees must notify their supervisor about a damaged or lost hardhat immediately.

PROTECTIVE EYEWEAR

When there is an exposure to the eyes from flying objects, glare or liquids, protective eyewear is required. Protective eyewear is an approved safety eye protector or safety goggle, which meets the standards of the American National Standards Institute (ANSI Z87.1-1968). Protective eyewear will be issued to the required employees.

DISPOSAL DUST MASKS

When there is the potential of exposure to airborne nuisance dust or particles, disposable dust masks are required.

PROTECTIVE GLOVES

When there is an exposure to the hands, protective gloves are required. Protective gloves are construction type work gloves and chemical resistive gloves. Construction type work gloves are required for, but not limited to, employees that have an opportunity of cutting, pinching, hitting, or burning their hands. Chemical resistive gloves are required for, but not limited to, employees that have an opportunity of spilling hazardous chemicals or corrosive material onto their hands.

BACK SUPPORTS

When employees are exposed to heavy lifting or repetitive lifting, back support devices are required.

ATTIRE

When you have been given details of the job you will be required to perform. Make sure you are suitably dressed to do the job. Wear appropriate footwear. Safety shoes are recommended and mandatory in most plants. Always wear a hard hat in designated "hard hat" areas. Wear safety goggles, safety gloves, safety belts, etc., where such items are advised or mandatory. The company will provide these items. If not, contact your supervisor for instructions.

Safe work attire is required in a manufacturing environment.

Shoes: No open toed shoes permitted at anytime. Canvas or nylon sport type shoes cannot be worn unless specifically authorized by a supervisor. Industrial boots with hard toes must be worn on any lifting jobs and warehouse jobs.

Clothes: Do not wear ill-fitting or baggy clothes around machinery. Loose ribbons and dangling jewelry are a safety hazard and must not be worn while you are working. Pants should be long proceeding past the ankles. NO PART OF AN EMPLOYEE'S LEGS SHOULD BE EXPOSED.

Hair: Long hair must be kept behind neck and shoulders to prevent entanglement with machinery.

Jewelry: Remove finger rings before working around moving machinery, electrical equipment or food product manufacturing and whenever required, including when lifting heavy product.

 - (11) The driver shall slow down and sound the horn at cross aisles and other locations where vision is obstructed. If the load being carried obstructs forward view, the driver shall be required to travel with the load trailing.
 - (12) Operators shall look in the direction of travel and shall not move a vehicle until certain that all persons are in the clear.
 - (13) Trucks shall not be driven up to anyone standing in front of a bench or other fixed object of such size that the person could be caught between the truck and object.
 - (14) Grades shall be ascended or descended slowly.
 - (A) When ascending or descending grades in excess of 10 percent, loaded trucks shall be driven with the load upgrade.
 - (B) On all grades the load and load engaging means shall be tilted back if applicable, and raised only as far as necessary to clear the road surface.
 - (C) Motorized hand and hand/rider trucks shall be operated on all grades with the load-engaging means downgrade.
 - (15) The forks shall always be carried as low as possible, consistent with safe operations.

 - (A) The power shall be shut off and, when left on an incline, the wheels shall be blocked; or
 - (B) The power may remain on provided the wheels are blocked, front and rear.
 - (17) When the operator of an industrial truck is dismounted and within 25 feet (7.6 meters) of the truck which remains in the operator's view, the load engaging means shall be fully lowered, controls placed in neutral, and the brakes set to prevent movement.

Exception: Forks on fork-equipped industrial trucks may be in the raised position for loading and unloading if the forks are raised no more than 42 inches above the level where the operator/loaders are standing, and the power is shut off, controls placed in neutral and the brakes set. If on an incline, the wheels shall be blocked.

- (18) Vehicles shall not be run onto any elevator unless the driver is specifically authorized to do so. Before entering an elevator, the driver shall determine that the capacity of the elevator will not be exceeded. Once on an elevator, the industrial truck's power shall be shut off and the brakes set.
- (19) Motorized hand trucks shall enter elevators or other confined areas with the load end forward.
- (20) Vehicles shall not be operated on floors, sidewalk doors, or platforms that will not safely support the loaded vehicle.
- (21) Prior to driving onto trucks, trailers and railroad cars, their flooring shall be checked for breaks and other structural weaknesses.
- (22) Vehicles shall not be driven in and out of highway trucks and trailers at loading docks until such trucks or trailers are securely blocked or restrained and the brakes set.
- (23) To prevent railroad cars from moving during loading or unloading operations, the car brakes shall be set, wheel chocks or other recognized positive stops used, and blue flags or lights displayed in accordance with Section 3333 of these Orders and Title 49, CFR, Section 218.27 which is hereby incorporated by reference.
- (24) The width of one tire on the powered industrial truck shall be the minimum distance maintained from the edge by the truck while it is on any elevated dock, platform, freight car or truck.
- (25) Railroad tracks shall be crossed diagonally, wherever possible. Parking closer than 8 1/2 feet from the centerline of railroad tracks is prohibited.
- (26) Trucks shall not be loaded in excess of their rated capacity.
- (27) A loaded vehicle shall not be moved until the load is safe and secure.
- (28) Extreme care shall be taken when tilting loads. Tilting forward with the load engaging means elevated shall be prohibited except when picking up a load. Elevated loads shall not be tilted forward except when the load is being deposited onto a storage rack or equivalent. When stacking or tiering, backward tilt shall be limited to that necessary to stabilize the load.

- (29) The load engaging device shall be placed in such a manner that the load will be securely held or supported.

 - (B) The force applied by the device to the door shall be applied parallel to the direction of travel of the door.
 - (C) The entire door opening operation shall be in full view of the operator.
 - (D) The truck operator and other employees shall be clear of the area where the door might fall while being opened.
- (32) If loads are lifted by two or more trucks working in unison, the total weight of the load shall not exceed the combined rated lifting capacity of all trucks involved.
- (33) When provided by the industrial truck manufacturer, an operator restraint system such as a seat belt shall be used.

Operating rules for industrial trucks contained on this poster are current through Register 2009, No. 44 California Code of Regulations (operative 11-27-2009). Other rules may also apply.

Safe Lifting Techniques

Back injuries account for about one in every five job-related injuries in California workplaces. Disabling back injuries are no laughing matter for employees who lose time from work or from personal activities. The sad truth is that most of the pain and lost time can be prevented if you are aware of how the back functions and how to lift safely to protect your back.

The back is a network of fragile ligaments, discs, and muscles which can easily be thrown out of order. The back's complex design breaks down when it's forced to perform activities it was not designed to do. Lifting with the back twisted or bent just begs for a pulled muscle or ruptured disc. One sure way to risk injuring the back is to lift heavy or bulky loads improperly or unassisted. Never be afraid to ask for help with loads that you know you cannot lift safely. Lift with good sense and a little extra help from a co-worker or mechanical aid when necessary.

If you decide you are capable of lifting a light load, make sure you lift correctly.

- Move in so that your feet are close to the base of the object to be lifted.
- Face the object squarely. Bend your knees and squat over the item to be lifted. In this position, the back gets added lifting strength and power from the legs and arms.
- Move up close to the item, because the backbone must act as a supporting column, and it takes the least strain close in.
- Tilt the item on edge with its long axis straight up so that the center of the weight is as high as possible above the ground.
- Still squatting, the feet should be set with legs pointed right at the load, with the back straightened, the employee may then grasp the load with both arms and slowly stand up with it, pushing up with the leg muscles. If you can't lift slowly, you can't lift safely.

A good way to learn the right from the wrong way to lift is to practice lifting correctly a few times. You will notice that the correct way to lift is the easiest way to lift the load, with the least strain and awkwardness. To lift the wrong way will, over time, cause injury and pain. The back can be damaged quickly but can take a long time to heal.

Heat Illness

The California Code of Regulations (CCR), Title 8, section 3395 Heat Illness Prevention contains the high-heat procedures and the heat illness standards. The CCR defines the following terms:

- "Acclimatization" means the body's temporary adaptation to work in the heat that occurs gradually when a person is exposed to it. Acclimatization peaks in most people within 4 to 14 days of regular work for at least two hours per day in the heat.
- "Heat illness" means a serious medical condition that result from the body's inability to cope with a particular heat load. Heat illness includes heat cramps, heat exhaustion, heat syncope and heat stroke.
- "Environmental risk factors for heat illness" means working conditions that create the possibility that heat illness could occur. Environmental risk factors for heat illness include air temperature, relative humidity, radiant heat from the sun and other sources, conductive heat sources, air movement, workload severity and duration, protective clothing and PPE Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) refers to items that protect employees against hazards that employees wear.
- "Personal risk factors for heat illness" means factors that affect the body's water retention or other physiological responses to heat. Personal risk factors for heat illness include a person's age, degree of acclimatization, health, water consumption, alcohol consumption, caffeine consumption and use of prescription medications.
- "Shade" means blockage of direct sunlight. One indicator that blockage is sufficient is when objects do not cast a shadow in the area of blocked sunlight. Shade is not adequate when heat in the area of shade defeats the purpose of shade, which is to allow the body to cool. For example, a car sitting in the sun does not provide acceptable shade to a person inside it, unless the car is running with air-conditioning. You can provide shade by any natural or artificial means that does not expose employees to unsafe or unhealthy conditions.
- "Temperature" means the dry bulb temperature in degrees Fahrenheit obtainable by using a thermometer to measure the outdoor temperature in an area where there is no shade. Though the temperature measurement must be taken in an area with full sunlight, the bulb or sensor of the thermometer should be shielded while taking the measurement (e.g., with the hand or some other object from direct contact by sunlight).

Electrical

Take the utmost precautions when working with electricity. Remember, only qualified personnel shall make repairs or adjustments to electrical equipment. CARELESSNESS can result in serious injury even death from electrical shock.

1. Electrical tools shall not be operated where danger of flammable vapors, gasses and liquids exist, or where dust or water is present.
2. Electrical equipment repairs shall be made only by qualified personnel. Machines being repaired must have the electricity shut off at the circuit box and the switch locked so it cannot be reactivated, except by the person performing repairs. (Refer to lock out/tag out procedures)
3. Metal ladders shall not be used in the vicinity of electrical circuits or in places where they may come in contact with electricity.
4. Report short circuits, damaged outlets, damaged cords immediately!
5. Use of extension cords is prohibited, use plugging through a receptacle.

Lock Out/Tag Out

The following are procedures for isolating machines and/or equipment from all potential energy sources. Procedures are to ensure safety for all employee's before performing any maintenance. DO NOT attempt to Lock Out/Tag Out if you are NOT qualified and approved to do so.

1. Machines must be turned off and locked out during maintenance.
2. Energy isolation and Lock Out/Tag Out are to be applied only by employee's authorized to perform service maintenance.
3. Before Lock Out/ Tag Out is applied, notify your manager of the affected area.
4. Lock Out and/or Tag Out the energy isolating devices with individual lock(s) or red tag(s).
5. After ensuring that no personnel are exposed, check that the energy source(s) have been disconnected and operate the push button or other normal operating controls to make certain the equipment will not operate. CAUTION: RETURN OPERATING CONTROLS TO THE NEUTRAL AND/OR OFF POSITION.
6. Do not attempt to operate any switch, valve, or other energy isolating device where it is locked out or tagged out.
7. When removing Lock Out/Tag Out, be sure all tools and personnel are removed from the work area.
8. Execute a head count to make sure all employees are out of the work area. Notify your manager that Lock Out/Tag Out has ended.
9. The Lock Out/Tag Out device is to be removed only by the person who placed the device.

Good Manufacturing Practices & HACCP

Food safety cannot be achieved by government regulations and inspection; it can only be achieved by careful handling of foods at all points in the food chain, from production to consumption. Employees must understand their role and accept the responsibility of their actions. It is the employee's responsibility to provide safe, wholesome foods to the customer and to maintain the quality and reputation of their company products and or services.

Process:

- GMP/HACCP provides an auditable system for food safety and requires a plan which dictates how a company manages food safety.
- GMP/HACCP requires companies to properly develop prerequisite programs (GMP) which detail how hazards may be controlled.
- GMP/HACCP requires critical control points to be established to control hazards not controlled by a prerequisite program.

Employee Responsibility:

- GMP/HACCP will require the employee to understand the aspects of food safety in relationship to the tasks he or she performs.
- GMP/HACCP puts the responsibility of controlling hazards on the person performing the task.
- GMP/HACCP will prompt the employee to take corrective action before a deviation becomes a problem.
- GMP/HACCP requires employee commitment to perform their tasks as trained.

Controls:

- Proper controls are necessary to prevent contamination of food which may result in a potential health hazard.
- Control of critical points in the handling sequence of food is essential for the protection of food.
- Control can be achieved through corporate commitment and the planning and implementation of a sound, effective GMP/HACCP program.

Ergonomics

How to set-up an Ergonomically Correct Workstation:

- Adjust your chair so that your thighs are horizontal with the floor, your feet are flat, and the backrest supports your lower back. If your feet do not rest comfortably on the floor, use a footrest.
- Adjust your keyboard or chair height so that, while you're typing, your elbow is at a 90-degree angle and your wrists are straight.
- Adjust your computer monitor so the top of the screen is at your eye level.
- Use a document holder so your papers can be kept at the same level as your computer monitor.
- Make motions such as typing and stapling with the least amount of force possible.
- Adjust the window blinds or lighting so there is no glare on the computer screen.
- Along with setting up your workstation properly, it's essential to take breaks and change your position (whether seated or standing) frequently. For instance, look away from your computer screen for 30 seconds every 10 minutes, and get up to stretch every half hour. This will help to take some of the strain away and reduce your risk of being injured from making repetitive movements (such as typing) without a rest.
