Cinthia, Lucio, and their son were living in a small room built with scraps of wood and plastic, to suffice as their bedroom, living room, and kitchen, with no water or electricity.

Their hope was to one day have a warm, stable, safe home in which to raise their son - and now they do!

Gloria and Adrian have three children, Sinahi, Keyla, and Jesus. Neither Gloria or Adrian were able to attend high school, as they needed to work to support their families.

They had been living on this small piece of land for two years, under tarps and plastic, but finally this new home gives them a better chance to succeed in their biggest dream of giving their children a better childhood.
